ANNEX/1

TAT GIDA SANAYİ A.Ş. PROFIT DISTRIBUTION POLICY

Our Company distributes profits to the shareholders within the framework of the provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code, Capital Market Regulations, Tax Regulations and other relevant regulations and the article of the Articles of Association of our Company regarding the distribution of profit. Within such practice, a balanced and coherent policy is sought between the interests of the shareholders and the Company in accordance with the Corporate Management Principles.

Within the framework of article 19 of our Articles of Association, General Assembly is entitled to decide a distribution of dividends to members of the board of directors, officers, employees and workers, foundations established for various purposes and persons and organizations of similar quality from the amount remaining after the primary legal reserve of 5% reserved from the pretax profit, financial liabilities and the first dividend, which is reserved according to the Capital Market Legislation by a resolution regarding dividends. Moreover, after deducting 5% of the paid-in capital from the amount assessed for the first dividend, 5% of the remaining amount is paid to the founder beneficial right holders within the framework of the Capital Market Regulations.

As a principle, minimum 20% of the distributable profit calculated based on the communiqués of the Capital Market Board shall be distributed in cash and/or as bonus shares calculated according to the communiqués of the Capital Market Board as long as the applicable regulations and financial means allow and with due consideration of the long-term strategies, investment and financing policies and profitability status of our company and as long as it can be covered by the sources entered into our legal records.

It is aimed to distribute profit within not later than one month following General Assembly, and General Assembly decides the profit distribution date. General Assembly or the Board of Directors, if authorized, may decide for distribution of the dividend by installments in accordance with the Capital Market Regulations.

According to the Articles of Association of the Company, the Board of Directors may make advance payments for dividend, provided that authorization by the General Assembly shall be sought and Capital Market Regulations shall be observed.

ANNEX/4

REMUNERATION POLICY FOR SENIOR MANAGERS AND MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

This policy document defines the remuneration system and practices for our members of the Members of the Board of Directors and Senior Managers within the scope of those with an administrative responsibility within the scope of the Capital Markets Board regulations.

Each year, fixed remuneration is determined during general assembly, which shall be valid for all the members of the Board of Directors.

The executive Members of the Board of Directors shall be paid remuneration within the scope of the policy determined for Senior Managers as detailed below.

The Chairman and the Members of the Executive Committee of the Company that will effectively support the Board of Directors in all respects relating to the operation of the Company may be granted a benefit in an amount determined within the framework of the opinion of the Corporate Governance Committee, taking into consideration their contributions, attendance to meetings and functions at the end of a year. If the Members of the Executive Committee are made any payment within this scope during the year, such payments shall be deducted from the amount determined at the end of the year.

For remuneration of the independent members of the board of directors, payment plans based on the performance of the company may not be used.

The Members of the Board of Directors are made payments on a pro rata basis with consideration of the period in office with regards to date of their appointment and leaving. The expenses of the members of the board of directors may be covered by the company due to their contribution to the company (costs of transport, telephone, insurance etc.).

The remuneration for the senior managers, on the other hand, consist of two elements, being fixed and performance-based.

The fixed remunerations for Senior Managers are determined in accordance with international standards and legal liabilities with due consideration of the macroeconomic data in the market, remuneration policies applicable in the market, company size and long-term goals and positions of the people.

Senior Manager premiums, on the other hand, are calculated based on premium basis, company performance and individual performance. The information related to the criteria is summarized below:

- Premium Basis: Premium Basis is updated on each New Year's Day and varies depending on the job size of the management position. While updating premium basis, the senior management premium policies in the market are taken into consideration.
- Company Performance: Company performance is obtained by measuring the financial and operational (market share, export, activities abroad, efficiency etc.) set for the company on each New Year's Day at the end of the period. While setting the company's goals, sustainable success and improvements as compared to the preceding years are principles that are taken into consideration with emphasis.
- Individual Performance: In determining the individual performance, the employee, customer, process, and technology goals and long-termed strategies are taken into consideration. In measuring the individual performance, the principle of long-term sustainable improvement is taken into consideration in parallel with the company performance and in addition to financial areas.

If Senior Managers of our company quit, then a bonus can be paid for quitting with due consideration of their period in office, their period in office as a senior manager, their respective contributions, the last target bonus at the time of quitting and the salary and bonus paid during their last year.

Total amounts determined according to the foregoing principles and paid to the Senior Managers and Members of the Board of Directors are submitted to the information and/or approval of the shareholders during the general assembly to follow in accordance with the legislation.
